

NOTES DE PRESSE PRESS RATINGS 2021

Markus Del Monego

92/100

“Dark purple colour with violet hue and almost blackcore. Aromatic nose reminiscent of blackberries and blackcurrant jelly, vanilla and balmy spices, hints of coffee in the background. On the palate well structured and balanced with ripe and juicy fruit, discreet spiciness, fine toasting, very good length.”

“Intense garnet, purple fading to ochre on the rim. Ripe cherries over subtle toasty aromas, hints of strawberries, candied orange zest, mineral touch. Medium-bodied, red berry fruit, light-bodied and fresh, nicely structured, mineral-salty, integrated acidity, red cherry finish.”

Peter Moser

89-91/100

“Le vin ne manque pas de charme. Il se montre immédiatement gourmand et séduisant, avec un côté souple et des tanins tendres.”

Terre de Vins
91-92/100

“Un nez sur une note café, torréfié, qui précède une boule de fruit noir légèrement grillée. La bouche est trapue, centrée, sur une concentration encore engoncée dans le costume tannique mais qui devrait se fondre et s'arrondir avec le temps. À suivre.”

Robert Parker
WINE ADVOCATE

86-88/100

“From a 60-hectare vineyard (fully one-third of which is being replanted) defined by predominantly clay-limestone soils, the 2021 La Tour de Mons offers up aromas of sweet red berries, orange rind, rose petals and cedarwood, followed by a medium-bodied, lively and melting palate. It's a delicate, fine-boned Margaux that will merit a higher score if it gains in depth with further élevage.”
