THE WINE CELLAR INSIDER

“Wet earth, spice, tobacco leaf, oak smoke, black and red fruits are the first things one notices, but not last. The wine rich, refined, elegant and fresh. The fruit is ripe, pure and vibrant. The energy, length and delicious, ripe, sweet fruit and spice in the finish is a treat. Today, it is hard to find a better wine for the money in the ever-increasingly expensive Margaux appellation.”

92-94/100

Jeff Leve

“Le vin est vraiment séduisant, très expressif, avec un fruité généreux et une bouche très veloutée, servie par des tanins fins. Une très belle surprise pour ce château qui ne cesse de progresser.”

16,5-17,5/20

Decanter

“Enjoyable, a little less signature Margaux than its sibling property but this is a delicious gourmet-edged wine, and a brilliant (relatively) value choice in the appellation.”

JAMES SUCKLING.COM

“A creamy, refined red with currant and berry aromas and flavors. Hints of citrus and chocolate. Medium to full body with ripe, creamy tannins.”
