Located near the village of Pomerol and acquired in 2010 by Benoit and Jean-Louis Trocard, respectively 15th and 14th generations of the family, the vineyard was once the scene of horse races.

The old track attracted the attention of the Trocard family for its terroir and its history. Benoit, passionate about horses, immediately had a thought for "Papillon Porte Chic", the Sunday horse of his grandparents. Majestic, the family thoroughbred thus gave its name to Château Porte Chic.

TASTING BY OUR CELLAR MASTER:

Garnet red with purple hues.

Elegant bouquet, inviting notes of mint and cocoa beans. A touch of blueberries. Creamy and tasty on the palate.

Porte Chic has very fine tannins which give depth and fullness to the whole palate to the whole palate. Fruity, juicy and refreshing finish.
