Love the shape and energy of this white, with an emphasis on fresh citrus and stone fruits, rounded out by more subtle waves of white tea, pink grapefruit and sage. Unusual, juicy with plenty of grip, it seems less touched by the vintage than many whites in the region. Eric Boissenot and Marco Balsimelli consultants.

Crisp and bright with sliced pear, apple and lemon aromas and flavors. Medium body. Stone and apricot with some mango.

The 2022 du Tertre Blanc offers up aromas of exotic fruits, pastry cream and passionflower, followed by a medium-bodied, fleshy and aromatic palate that retains impressive cut and freshness for the vintage. As usual, it's an idiosyncratic blend of Gros Manseng, Sauvignon Blanc, Chardonnay and Viognier.

The 2022 du Tertre Blanc [...] sashays out with fantastically fragrant notes of juicy peaches, honeysuckle, and grapefruit oil, plus suggestions of beeswax and Marcona almonds. The medium-bodied palate has a great intensity of citrus and stone fruit flavors with a lively line of freshness and a long, perfumed finish. Love it.
