It is fitting that the perfume here forms a veritable fanfare of glorious white peach, rhubarb, melon rind and pomegranates on the nose. And then, as if by magic, an invisible conductor ushers the audience to their seats, and, on command, the flavours seep onto the palate and rise gradually until every taste bud is immersed in gloriously refreshing, silky fruit. And then the flavours recede, leaving you with a feeling of monastic calm. You momentarily snap back to attention and repeat. Happy Birthday indeed, and it will last all year.
